Purpose

This procedure exists to recognise, through appropriate title, those people who are not University staff members but who can contribute in a significant way (academic or non-academic) to the development or enhancement of the University, or to the University community or its objectives, for a specified tenure

Scope

This procedure applies to Ambassadors of the University appointed by the University Council.

Definitions

Ambassador of the University:	Is an individual appointed by the University Council in accordance with this procedure and its associated policy, who is not a current University staff member or student or member of the University Council, who is deemed to be able to contribute in a significant way to the advancement of the University, or to the University community or its objectives, for the duration of his/her tenure.

Actions

The principles of merit selection and equal employment opportunity as per the University's Recruitment and Merit Selection Policy are applicable when recommending Ambassador of the University appointments.

Recommendation for Appointment

The Vice-Chancellor will recommend to the University Council the appointment/reappointment of an Ambassador of the University.

The recommendation must consist of:

- a memorandum outlining the reason for the appointment and the contribution that the individual can make to the University, together with a brief assessment of the individual's qualifications and experience;
- a Curriculum Vitae (including the contact details of the individual);
- a proposed period of appointment (in accordance with the Ambassadors of the University Policy); and
- whether the appointee will be supervised by the Vice-Chancellor or to the Chancellor (depending on the nature of his/her role).

Approval of Recommendation

The University Council will be responsible for approving the appointment of an Ambassador of the University.

Once the appointment is approved, the Vice-Chancellor or his/her nominee must forward the recommendation for appointment to People and Culture.
