The DVC (RI) has overall responsibility for overseeing Higher Degrees by Research in partnership awards. To establish a joint award course, the following must be met:

- The research study course proposed at the partner institution must be approved by Academic Board on the recommendation of Research Committee.
- If the partner is an international institution, the Higher Degree by Research course must comply with the Offshore Quality Assurance Policy if applicable.
- The international partner institution must be approved by the Vice Chancellor (or delegate) and University Council As per Delegations – Tenders, Contracts Policy.

In order to be a partner an international institution must:

- Be of good standing.
- Offer courses of comparable standard to those offered by Federation University Australia.
- Have appropriately qualified staff.
- Have facilities, equipment and physical resources of the appropriate standard for the carrying out of the Higher Degree by Research.

A Memorandum of Understanding between Federation University Australia and the partner institution should be prepared concerning the awarding of a joint or cotutelle Higher Degree by Research.

Steps	Who is responsible?	Comments
1. MOU between institutions outlining terms and conditions of joint award signed by governing bodies of both partners.	DVC (R&I) Legal Office	MOU signed first to indicate intent to offer HDR in partnership. HDR in partnership may be only part of scope of MOU.
